BePink rules the team time trial race during the Vuelta a El Salvador. Noemi Cantele strengthens her leadership.

Yet another victory! Another outstanding performance for BePink's athletes, who won the team time trial race during the first half of the second stage of the Vuelta.

Great performance of all of Walter Zini's athletes, that covered the 11 km long circuit in 17 minutes sharp. Thanks to this new result, Noemi Cantele strengthened her leading position in the general classification, while teammate Alena Amialiusik improved her performance and is now ranking 2nd.

During the second half-stage all the athletes crossed the line together, but BePink once again dominated the race. Another outstanding performance for Alena, who finished 3rd.

Today there will be the most difficult stage of this Vuelta: a short yet extremely complex fraction, with an uphill final segment on the dreaded Boqueron.
