Amazing performance at the GP El Salvador for Silvia Valsecchi A perfect grand finale for BePink

Another great day for BePink.. Yesterday, it was all about Silvia, who won her first race of the season during the Gp El Salvador, obtaining the 6th victory in El Salvador. The Gp El Salvador ends the intense week of races in Central America.

For BePink this week definitely started on a good note, but it ended on an even better one.

On the difficult uphill finale of the race, Silvia Valsecchi, the Italian champion runner-up manage to cross the finishing line completely alone. Nobody could keep up with her.

Again, a great example of teamwork. The icing on the proverbial cake was Noemi Cantele's 5th place, as well as Alena Amialiusik's 8th.

Right after crossing the finishing line, an ecstatic Silvia said: "It's such a satisfaction. I love winning like this, it's not an easy feat but I enjoy it even more so. The team works very well together, we understand each other and we believe in the same goals. I really couldn't ask for more."

"I'm fully happy with the girls' performance. They all understood the strategy perfectly. Silvia raced very well, she definitely is a hardworking athlete and this 1st place pays all her efforts off" said Walter Zini.

To win, just a good physical condition is not enough. Yesterday, thanks to the flawless understanding of the strategy of all the athletes, BePink had the chance to celebrate yet another great victory.

Our goals are big, but the girls are definitely more than up for the challenge.
