Gipplingen: BePink steals the show!

Doris wins the last stage, Dalia wins the race. Three BePink athletes on the podium.

A real masterpiece. Dalia, Doris, Georgia and Ilaria rank first, second, third and fourth, respectively, in the general classification of the Gipplingen GP.

Doris Schweizer won the last stage, scoring her third victory of the season and getting to the finishing line all alone. Ilaria Sanguineti, after a very good performance, placed second.

Yesterday's race was amazing, but today's was truly perfect. The final podium of the Gipplingen GP is dominated by BePink's athletes: Dalia Muccioli places first, followed by Doris Schweizer and Georgia Williams. Ilaria Sanguineti ranks fourth after her amazing performance in the second stage.

A very special day for the whole team.

"The girls raced very well. We stole the show, as they say. I'm really satisfied, it's a victory for the whole team and it rewards all fourth athletes. We dominated the race.", stated the team manager Walter Zini.

Good news came from Spain as well: Alena Amialiusik ranked seventh in the second stage and finished sixth in the individual time trial race. She placed sixth in the general classification as well.
