Alena Amialiusik wins the Grand Prix Oberbaselbiet. Noemi Cantele finishes fourth.

During the Route de France, ended on the previous day, Alena had already showed her good physical condition. She managed to finish almost every stage in the top ten and placed 5th in the general classification.

Yesterday, in Switzerland, she won the GP Oberbaselbiet: it's her fifth victory this season and the 28th for the team.

The Byelorussian champion crossed the finishing line all alone after a good race. It's an important result for the whole team.

Less than 4 kilometers before the finishing line, on the very last climb, Alena attacked and conquered the lead position, escaping from the group and winning the race. She also won the intermediate sprint line's classification and the Queen of the Mountains' title, proving that she was the protagonist of this race from start to finish.

Her teammates also performed really well, especially Noemi Cantele, who finished 4th: a good sign for the rest of the season. She also did well during the Route de France.

Finally, the Swiss champion Doris Schweizer placed 10th on her homeland's roads.

"I'm very satisfied with the girls' performances today. This race was hard but they dominated it. This victory is important for the morale of the whole team. I'm also happy that Noemi's back and that she recovered well. Good job!" said the team manager Walter Zini after the race.
