BePink's athletes are ready for the national championships. Italy, Poland, Byelorussia, Switzerland and Israel.

This will be a very long, busy week for BePink.

The athletes, directed by Walter Zini and Sigrid Corneo, are ready to do their best, as always, to achieve good results during the national championships that will take place this week.

The athletes will compete in six different countries, starting tomorrow, June 19th: Italy, Slovenia, Poland, Byelorussia, Switzerland and Israel.

The Italian individual time trial championship will take place on June 21st in Romanengo, with the participation of Noemi Cantele, who won the bronze medal last year, Silvia Valsecchi, Simona Frapporti and Dalia Muccioli. 48 hours later, in Varese, there will be the long awaited for road race. BePink will line up the winner of the silver medal last year, Silvia Valsecchi, Noemi Cantele, Simona Frapporti, Dalia Muccioli, Alice Algisi and the youngest on the team, Ilaria Sanguineti.

In Switzerland, Doris Schweizer will race for the red and white jersey both during the individual time trial and the road race.

On the 21st, Alena Amialiusik will try to win the second championship in a row after her victory last year in the individual time trial race, and two days later she will also participate in the road race, where she won the bronze medal last year.

As for Poland, Malgorzata Wojtyra will participate in the road national championship on the 22nd. Finally, Daniela Levi will compete in the individual time trial race in Israel on the 25th and in the road race on the 29th.
