

BePink is born. An ambitious, various and innovative plan. Here the new team of Walter Zini.

She has strongly intentional the estimated team manager, and now, the new team who has center in Lombardy, raises the veil.

BePink, is not a simple team of women elite. It is not only feminine a bicycle team. It is a plan, designed and intentional from various figures, asserted, coming managers from different and joined within from the passion for the two wheels. BePink will not cure only the athletic aspect, but also that of the communication, the image of the athletes and the mental coaching, fundamental elements for the construction and the increase of the team.

Walter Zini, team manager that boasts an important experience between the elite, will be to the guide of a team formed from very thirteen athletes. A young group of coming girls from all the continent.

"BePink is born from a plan articulate and studied in every detail in order to allow with the athletes to express the personal attitudes at best, in order to grow and to reach challenging results of team. The activity will be carried out to 360 degrees, participating to all the tests of World Cup and with important objectives in the national championships and an eye of with regard to London 2012 thanks to the presence of athletes, also foreign, that they stop national titles and that they could be selected in order to participate to the Olympics. Also the track will be between our objectives since three our athletes dress the tricolour shirt, thanks to the important turned out obtained to the recent national championships ". These the words of the number one of BePink, Walter Zini.

Part with a tricolour trio, Silvia Valsecchi, twenty-nine-year-old brianzola, ventitreenne the Simona Frapporti, bresciana of Anfo, and the twenty-two-year-old trevigiana Glory Lend. After to have won, and made to mark the Italian record in the pursuit to teams, to the recent Absolute Championships on track, the trio has decided to follow who has prepared them for the important appointment. Silvia Valsecchi is himself moreover, graduated champion of Italy also in the individual pursuit.

There will be also Julia Martisova, that he has already defended in the past the colors of Zini, and will be clucks it of this formation, that he has decided to invest very on young athletes. Been born in Russia, but by now from years in Italy, thanks to its experience and age, it will be a fundamental full stop, he is in the lap races, he is in that from a day.

Also Oxana Kozonchuk, knows its new sport director well having course for he already, some season makes. Oxana, like Julia, is of Russian matrix, but from alive years in the of Bergamo one. A promising young person, that it will certainly find the just atmosphere for a rebirth.

Always young, and ready for a 2012 important, Eleonora Patuzzo is the veronese twenty - two - year - old, than to the age of eighteen years, she has won the championship of the world in the junior category and it is itself tax in the greater category.

Alena Amaliusik, with its solos twenty-two years, has picked an important silver medal to the recent European Championships on road, besides various results in the maximum category. It is Belarussian and it wears the shirt of national champion road and chronometer.

Not only Russia and Belarus, but also South America. Evelyn Garci'a, twenty - nine - year - old salvadoregna that he has obtained an important public square of honor in the last Pan-American games, and two victories in South America. In its sport curriculum he very boasts two presences to Olympic Giochi, Athens 2004, and Beijing 2008

Muccioli dahlia, blue is to the European Championships, is to the Championship of the World of Copenhagen between the junior one and of Bergamo Alice Algisi, is the young athletes of the team. For they, the due objective will be the scholastic maturity, after, will follow a distance of increase and experience.

They complete the team the padovana nineteen-year-old young person Clear Favaron Bissoli, the twenty - one - year - old of Slovenian nationality Petra Zrimsek, that it has very figured to the International Turn of the Tuscany in last September and the strong passista, is in road is in track, Elke Gebhardt, German twenty - eight - year - old.

Walter Zini, will be placed side by side by a woman, that she has been athlete, let alone its companion of travel from many years. He will be, in fact, Sigrid Corneo who will place side by side in quality of sport director its husband. Thanks to its experience he could be the added value of this formation.

Professionalities and womanhood are the words key of this new adventure, that it will begin in 2012.

The athletes of BePink will run the next season with MCipollini bicycles, brand of excellence of the former champion of the world, Mario Cipollini

The debut of BePink will be of prestige, the Lombardic formation in fact, will be to the way to the Turn of Qatar, will follow then, all the tests of World Cup, beginning from the North, passing for the GiroDonne. Without to forget all the lap races that it offers the international panorama. The continental transfers will be a reason of professional increase, of I confront and acquaintance of new cultures.

Who knows that BePink, cannot then take to important part also transfers, overseas.

To compete and to be confronted world-wise are the aim in order to grow and to become, with the time, a reference team that can aim at to excellence results.

2012, it will be a year in which will serve to give a print, and to grow step after step; but there is the knowledge that the group, although is young, has the abilities to be able itself to remove some satisfaction, also to international level, since quickly.
